8. Draft Old Colony Public Participation Plan (PPP)

- Review and Potential Release to Public Review and Comment Period

Ray Guarino discussed the Draft Old Colony Public Participation Plan (PPP). The Old Colony PPP establishes the process through which public involvement is solicited to ensure cooperative decision making is part of the transportation planning process. It also ensures, in accordance with state and federal law requirements, an inclusive and accessible public engagement process for transportation decision making. Furthermore, the plan serves to guide the agency's public participation efforts, including reaching and engaging populations and those that potentially have been underserved by the transportation system and/or have lacked access to the decision-making process. Ray Guarino then provided a presentation on the PPP.

Pam Haznar commented that it seems like a very comprehensive plan.

Stephen Woelfel asked for a motion to release the Draft Old Colony Public Participation Plan to a 21-day public review and comment period. A motion was made and was seconded.

There being no changes, the Old Colony MPO then voted unanimously to release the Draft Old Colony Public Participation Plan to a 21-day public review and comment period.
